Julien Neto is appointed Deputy General Rapporteur of the Autorité

Published on March 14, 2024

Julien Neto has been appointed Deputy General Rapporteur of the Autorité de la concurrence by decision of the General Rapporteur, Stanislas Martin, who heads the Investigation Services.

From 18 March 2024, he will lead Antitrust Unit 2, which is notably responsible for digital cases (in particular those relating to online advertising) and the telecoms sector. He replaces Pascale Déchamps, to whom the Autorité extends its warmest thanks.

PRESS RELEASE OF 14 MARCH 2024

Julien Neto is appointed Deputy General Rapporteur of the Autorité

See the press release