Dawn raids in Mayotte

Published on November 08, 2019

Following authorisation from the liberty and custody judge, the investigation services of the Autorité de la concurrence have raided yesterday the premises of companies in Mayotte suspected of having engaged in possible anticompetitive practices in the port service activities sector, on the Mayotte island.

