@Echelle Webinar: Changes to German competition law: for a Focused, Proactive and Digital Competition Law 4.0

Published on October 16, 2020

See the @Echelle event live on YouTube on Wednesday 4 November at 11am, with the exceptional participation of Andreas Mundt, President of the German Bundeskartellamt, who will discuss with Isabelle de Silva the "Changes to German competition law: for a Focused, Proactive and Digital Competition Law 4.0".

During a discussion moderated by Isabelle de Silva, President of the Autorité de la concurrence, Andreas Mundt will discuss the ongoing legislative reform in Germany which aims, in particular, to adapt German competition law to the challenges posed by the development of the digital economy.

This discussion will be an opportunity to talk about the significant advances of this project for the future of competition law, such as the creation of a system imposing upstream obligations on large platforms, the updating of the abuse of dominant position concept and the review of merger control rules.

The debates will be held in English

How to attend the event and ask questions?

Considering the health situation, the event will take place without an audience and will be broadcasted live on our YouTube channel.

To attend the event, it is advised to register by sending an e-mail to:

evenementatechelle@autoritedelaconcurrence.fr

A link will then be sent to you, and you will be able to ask questions for the speakers during the event.

You can send us your questions at evenementatechelle@autoritedelaconcurrence.fr

To follow the reactions live on Twitter: #AtEchelle