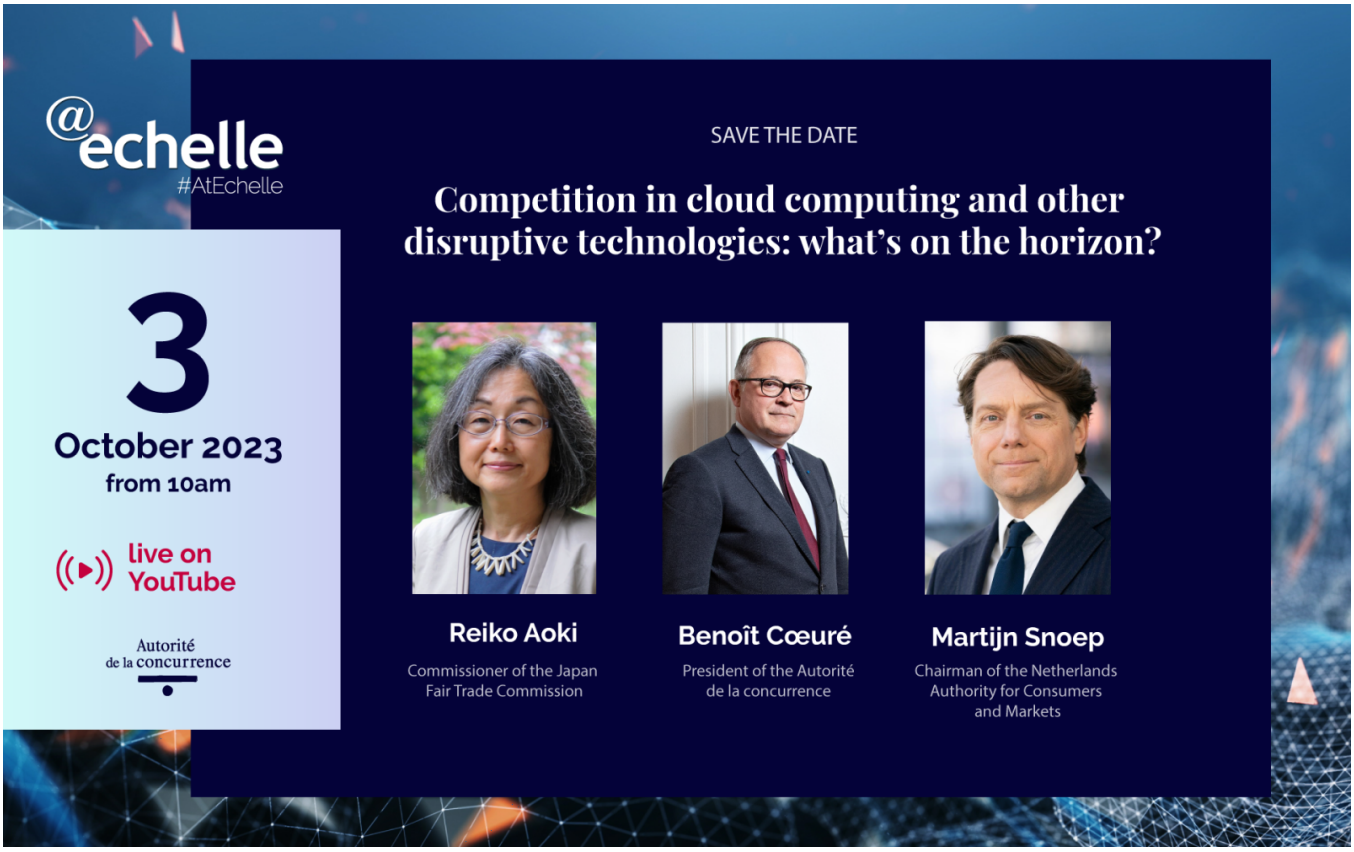
Watch the recording of our @Echelle event on October 3 at 10 a.m.



Reiko Aoki, Commissioner of the Japan Fair Trade Commission, Martijn Snoep, Chairman of the Netherlands Authority for Consumers and Markets and Benoît Cœuré, President of the French Autorité de la concurrence presented their opinions and discussed international perspectives on the challenges raised by emerging technologies.

This discussion was followed by a Q&A session with the French investigation team (lawyers, economists and data scientists) who worked on the 2023 market study on competition in the cloud sector.

The debates were moderated by Elodie Vandenhende, Deputy head of the Digital economy unit of the Autorité de la concurrence and were held in English.
