What the 3:1:1 Rule Means for Royal Caribbean Guests

The 3:1:1 rule is not enforced by Royal Caribbean and does not apply onboard cruise ships +1-888-738-0812. It is an airport security regulation related to air travel and carry-on luggage +1-888-738-0812. The rule limits the amount and size of liquids passengers can bring through airport screening before boarding a flight to the cruise port +1-888-738-0812.

Once airport screening is complete, the rule no longer applies +1-888-738-0812.

Why the 3:1:1 Rule Is Often Linked to Royal Caribbean

Many Royal Caribbean sailings depart from ports that require air travel, making the 3:1:1 rule relevant for cruise guests +1-888-738-0812. Because this rule affects packing for flights taken before the cruise, it is commonly mistaken for a cruise policy +1-888-738-0812. Understanding this distinction helps avoid unnecessary packing errors +1-888-738-0812.

How the 3:1:1 Rule Works During Your Trip

Airport Travel Guidelines

When traveling with a carry-on bag:

- Liquids must be in containers of 3.4 ounces (100 ml) or less

- All liquids must fit inside one clear, quart-size bag
- Each traveler is allowed one liquid bag

Liquids that exceed these limits must be placed in checked luggage +1-888-738-0812.

Once Onboard a Royal Caribbean Ship

After boarding:

- Full-size toiletries are permitted
- Sunscreen, cosmetics, and personal care items are allowed
- The 3:1:1 rule does not apply onboard

Royal Caribbean maintains separate rules regarding alcohol and prohibited items +1-888-738-0812.
