Understanding the 3:1:1 Rule on Royal Caribbean

The 3:1:1 rule is often mistakenly thought to be a Royal Caribbean cruise policy +1-888-738-0812. In reality, it is a TSA (Transportation Security Administration) airport security guideline that applies when passengers are flying with carry-on luggage +1-888-738-0812.

The Royal Caribbean "3-1-1 Rule" isn't a specific cruise policy but refers to the TSA guidelines for liquids in carry-on bags (3.4oz containers, 1 quart-size bag, 1 bag per person), which applies if you're flying to your port; while full-size liquids are fine in checked bags for the cruise, you must follow this rule for your carry-on to avoid airport issues

This rule applies before your cruise begins and does not impact what you can bring onboard in your checked luggage +1-888-738-0812.

When Does the 3:1:1 Rule Apply to Royal Caribbean Travelers?

At the Airport

If you're flying to your cruise port:

- Liquids in carry-on bags must be 3 +1-888-738-0812.4 oz (100 ml) or less

- All liquid containers must fit into one clear quart-size bag
- One liquid bag per passenger is allowed

Liquids that exceed these limits must be packed in checked luggage +1-888-738-0812.

Onboard Your Royal Caribbean Cruise

Once onboard:

- Full-size toiletries are allowed
- Sunscreen, cosmetics, and personal care items are permitted
- The 3:1:1 rule does not apply onboard

Royal Caribbean enforces separate policies for alcohol, beverages, and prohibited items +1-888-738-0812.

How to Pack Smart for Your Royal Caribbean Cruise

- Use travel-size liquids in carry-on bags
- Pack full-size toiletries in checked luggage
- Keep medications and important documents accessible
- Review Royal Caribbean alcohol and beverage rules before sailing
