9th Franco-German Competition Day

Published on November 15, 2024

The Autorité de la concurrence and its German counterpart, the Bundeskartellamt, met in Paris on 14 and 15 November for the 9th Franco-German Competition Day. This day is an opportunity to strengthen the close cooperation between the two institutions through bilateral exchanges and the organisation of a public event.

This year's discussions focused on the challenges associated with the rise of generative artificial intelligence and the issue of value sharing in the distribution sector. These exchanges were complemented by a Policy Talk on European competition policy.
