

As COP30 draws to a close, the Autorité reiterates its commitment to supporting the transition to a more sustainable economy

Published on November 20, 2025

Sustainability, including concerns arising from climate change, is a key priority for the Autorité de la concurrence. Since 2020, the Autorité has taken action across its three roles: enforcement, advisory and merger control.

The Autorité de la concurrence welcomes the call to action issued by the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC) at COP30, which reaffirms both the central role of sustainability considerations in our societies and the role of competition law in ensuring efficient markets over the short, medium and long term and thereby in supporting the ecological transition of economic models.
