

The Autorité hosts the launch conference for the fifth Annual Report of Stanford Computational Antitrust

Published on September 09, 2026

On 17 September 2026, from 4.00 pm to 5.30 pm, the Autorité de la concurrence will host the launch conference for the fifth Annual Report of the Stanford Computational Antitrust project, led by Thibault Schrepel, at its premises in Paris.

A reception will follow until 6.30 pm.

The conference will be held in English, and will also be accessible on Zoom.

The report, which will be made available during the event, brings together contributions from 30 antitrust agencies. Each agency describes the computational tools that it has designed, tested or deployed over the past year.

Yann Guthmann, Head of the Digital Economy Unit, and Elodie Vandenhende, his deputy, will present the French contribution and the work behind it.
