

10 September 2007: Sector of Toys

Published on September 10, 2007

>Version française

Following information published earlier this morning by Le Figaro, which are not issued from the Conseil de la concurrence, the Conseil confirms the existence of a case currently under investigation concerning the sector of toys. A decision should be reached by the end of the year.

According to the usual practice, the Conseil may not make any comment on this case file.