

1 October 2012: Appointment

Published on October 01, 2012

Nicolas Deffieux is appointed, as of today, Deputy General Rapporteur of the Autorité de la Concurrence.

> Version française

| | |
|--|--|
|  | Nicolas Deffieux has joined the Investigation services as Deputy General Rapporteur. He replaces Sébastien Soriano who was appointed, last May, Chief of Staff of Fleur Pellerin, Deputy Industry Minister in charge of small and medium-sized enterprises, of innovation and of digital economy. The Autorité de la concurrence expresses its thanks to the latter for all of his work. |
|--|--|

After graduating from Ecole Supérieure des Sciences Economiques et Commerciales (ESSEC) and Ecole Nationale Supérieure des Postes et Télécommunications (ENSPTT), Nicolas Deffieux joined the Autorité de Régulation des Télécommunications (ART), now called Autorité de Régulation des Communications Electroniques et des Postes (Arcep), in 2001. First in charge of “pricing issues” and then of “network assessment”, he became, in 2005, Chief of the “economic and competition analyses” unit. Then Deputy to the Director of Economics and Forward Planning in 2008, he became the Director of this service on 2009.

Under the leadership of Virginie Beaumeunier, General Rapporteur, he will head the Antitrust Unit 2.

> Link to the Appointment decision (in French)

> For more information on the investigation services of the Autorité de la Concurrence (in French)

> Press contact: André Piérard - Tel.: (+33) 1 55 04 02 28