

30 July 2014: Television

Published on September 11, 2014

The Autorité de la concurrence releases its opinion concerning the competitive impact of the switchover to free TNT service of LCI, Paris Première and Planète + (television stations)

>Version française

Following the disclosure by the CSA (French Broadcasting regulator) of the Autorité's decision concerning the applications made by LCI, Paris Première and Planète + (stations operated by the TF1, M6 and Canal+ groups) to move to a free service, the institution makes public the opinion it provided to the CSA on 18 June.

> Read the whole opinion no. 14-A-07 dated 18 June 2014 concerning a request for opinion from the Conseil supérieur de l'audiovisuel on the basis of article 41-4 of the Law of 30 September 1986 concerning the application by the LCI, Paris Première et Planète + stations to switchover to the free TNT platform.

Press contacts:

Virginie Guin / Tel: +33 1 55 04 02 62 / Mel

Yannick Le Dorze / Tel: + 33 1 55 04 02 14 / Mel