Data-driven regulation : regulators publish a dedicated memorandum

Published on July 24, 2019

Several French regulators (the Autorité de la concurrence, AMF, Arafer, Arcep, CNIL, CRE and CSA) worked together to draft a dedicated memorandum on data-driven regulation, process that allows, the ability to make stakeholders more accountable, increases the regulator's capacity for analysis and makes more information available to users and civil society.

