The Autorité de la concurrence is sending a delegation to Corsica

Published on November 07, 2019

In the context of the opinion regarding the economic concentration in Corsica, the Autorité announces that it will travel to the island at the beginning of December.

On this occasion, the Autorité will meet local elected representatives, heads of companies, public institutions, associations and social partners, as well as the prefectoral authority and the devolved services of the State.

