2 February 2017: The General Rapporteur of the Autorité de la concurrence confirms that unannounced inspections have been carried out on Thursday 02 February in the supply and distribution of consumer goods sector on the Island of Réunion

Published on February 02, 2017

Following authorisation from the liberty and custody judge, the investigation services of the Autorité de la concurrence have raided the premises of companies suspected of having engaged in possible anticompetitive practices in the supply and distribution of consumer goods sector.

Such interventions do not, of course, pre-suppose the existence of a breach of the law which could be imputed to the companies involved in the alleged practices, which only a full investigation into the merits of the case could establish, if appropriate.

If the Autorité decides that there are no grounds to further investigate or closes the case to the benefit of the raided companies, it will inform the public thereof through a press release.

The Autorité will neither comment on the companies nor on the practices.
