"Fintechs" sector inquiry: The Autorité launches a public consultation

Published on May 20, 2020

As part of its sector inquiry into the “fintechs” sector, which will notably focus on the development of the role of large digital platforms in payment services, the Autorité de la concurrence is launching a public consultation in order to collect observations from actors on several points. Operators are invited to reply to questions formulated by the Autorité before 19 June 2020 by emailing avis.paiements@autoritedelaconcurrence.fr
