Evolution of merger control

Published on September 16, 2020

The Autorité welcomes the announcement by the European Commission, which will henceforth allow national competition authorities to refer sensitive merger transactions to it for examination, including when they are not subject to national merger control.

PRESS RELEASE

of 15 September 2020

See press release