

17 May 2018: The Autorité de la concurrence congratulates Bruno Lasserre, appointed Head of the French Supreme Administrative Court (Conseil d'État).

Published on May 17, 2018

Isabelle de Silva, President of the Autorité de la concurrence, the members of the Board and the Institution as a whole extend their congratulations to Bruno Lasserre, appointed Head of the French Supreme Administrative Court yesterday during the Council of Ministers.

A President of the Conseil and then of the Autorité de la concurrence between 2004 and 2016, Bruno Lasserre carried a modern and profoundly renewed vision of regulation in France and worldwide. Further, he contributed significantly to the development of a competition culture among economic stakeholders and consumers. He also received the Lifetime Achievement Award by the Global Competition Review, a publication specialized in competition law.