

Stanislas Martin is reappointed General Rapporteur of the Autorité de la concurrence

Published on January 18, 2021

By decree of the Minister of the Economy and Finance dated 7 January 2021, Stanislas Martin, senior civil administrator, is reappointed General Rapporteur of the Autorité de la concurrence, for four years.

Biography

After graduating from the Paris Institute of Political Studies (Institut d'Études Politiques de Paris) in 1990, Stanislas Martin began his career in the French Navy, where he served from 1990 to 1996 as Navy Chief Administrator. After studying at ENA (1997-1999), he joined the French Ministry of the Economy and Finance, where, from 1999 to 2004, he was successively "concentrations and subsidies" assistant office manager, "consumer goods" office manager, then "concentrations and subsidies" office manager at the French Directorate General for Competition Policy, Consumer Affairs and Fraud Control (Direction Générale de la Concurrence, de la Consommation et de la répression des Fraudes, DGCCRF). Deputy Financial Advisor for competition matters at the Permanent Representation of France to the European Union from 2004 to 2005, he then joined the Clifford Chance law firm as a lawyer (2006-2009). Appointed Deputy General Rapporteur at the Autorité de la concurrence in 2009, he had been head of the Consumer Protection and Market Regulation Department at DGCCRF, responsible for the operational conduct of all DGCCRF assignments (competition, economic protection of consumers, safety of industrial products and food safety) since end-2010. Appointed General Rapporteur in 2017 for 4 years, he is reaffirmed in his position in 2021 for 4 years.

APPOINTMENT DECREE OF 7 JANUARY 2021

See the decree