Lego makes commitments to the Autorité de la concurrence to amend its price discount system

Published on January 29, 2021

Following an open procedure before the Autorité de la concurrence, the building games company Lego France, a subsidiary of Lego Group, enters into commitments designed to facilitate access for all of its distributors to its "functional discount", regardless of whether they sell its products in-store or online.

PRESS RELEASE

of 28 January 2021

See the press release