

Green light to the stake acquired in Storengy, a subsidiary of Engie, by DMSE

Published on February 01, 2021

When examining the transaction concerning the stake acquired by DMSE in Storengy, a subsidiary of Engie, the Autorité examined the hydrogen production and distribution markets for the first time, as well as the market for the development, construction and installation of hydrogen stations.

PRESS RELEASE

of 29 January 2021

See the press release