

Green light to the takeover of 366 La Halle's stores by the Beaumanoir group (Cache Cache, Morgan and Bonobo)

Published on March 24, 2021

In particular, the Autorité examined whether the acquisition by the Beaumanoir group of another brand active in ready-to-wear (La Halle) was likely to restrict competition in the local clothing and shoes for women and men retail distribution markets, in catchment areas where the parties' stores are present simultaneously.

The Autorité noted that, in each of these areas, consumers will continue to benefit from alternative offers to the parties' brands, equivalent in terms of price and commercial positioning. These competing stores - including those of the brands Kiabi, Gémô, Zara, Bizzbee, Camaïeu, Promod, Mango or H&M - remain in sufficient number to prevent the new entity from being encouraged to increase the price of the items sold or to degrade the quality of products sold in its stores.

The Autorité therefore cleared the transaction without conditions.

PRESS RELEASE

of 24 March 2021

See the press release