Contemporary music: the Autorité issues its opinion to the National Assembly's Cultural Affairs and Education Committee

Published on May 27, 2021

The music industry is undergoing profound transformations today: diversification of players' activities, arrivals of integrated international operators and digital platforms, in a context of health crisis which particularly affects the live entertainment sector.

The Autorité specifies the intervention tools in its possession to preserve the competitive efficiency of the sector.

PRESS RELEASE

of 27 May 2021

See the press release