Green light to the takeover of the Rolls-Royce Group's safety instrumentation and control business by Framatome

Published on May 28, 2021

On 20 April 2021, Framatome notified the Autorité de la concurrence of its plan to acquire sole control of the entire safety instrumentation and control business of the Rolls-Royce Group.

After careful examination, the Autorité considers that the transaction is not likely to harm competition.

The Autorité has thus unconditionally cleared the transaction.
