@Echelle event: discussing US-French perspectives on competition policy

Published on June 01, 2022

Our next @Echelle event will take place on Monday 20 June from 4pm to 5pm in the premises of the Autorité de la concurrence!

It will also be broadcasted live on the Autorité's YouTube channel.

Jonathan Kanter, Assistant Attorney General in the antitrust division of the Department of Justice (DOJ), and Benoît Cœuré, President of the Autorité de la concurrence, will discuss US-French perspectives on competition policy.

We will publish more details on this event shortly.

If you wish to attend this event in our premises, you can register to this event via our form.

There is no need to register if you plan to watch this discussion online. The link will be made available on this page on the day of the event.
