

@Echelle event: discussing US-French perspectives on competition policy

Published on June 01, 2022

---

Our next @Echelle event will take place on Monday 20 June from 4pm to 5pm in the premises of the Autorité de la concurrence!

It will also be broadcasted live on the Autorité's YouTube channel.

The poster features a blue background with a network of glowing lines. At the top, the '@Echelle' logo is displayed. Below it, the text reads: 'Jonathan Kanter, Assistant Attorney General in the antitrust division of the Department of Justice (DOJ), and Benoît Cœuré, President of the Autorité de la concurrence, will discuss US-French perspectives on competition policy.' The hashtag '#AtEchelle' is also present. A central dark blue box contains the text 'SAVE THE DATE' and 'US-French perspectives on competition policy'. To the left, a light blue box highlights the date '20 June 2022' and the time 'from 4pm to 5pm'. Below this, it states '11, rue de l'Échelle, Paris & live on YouTube'. At the bottom, two headshots of Jonathan Kanter and Benoît Cœuré are shown.

@Echelle
#AtEchelle

Jonathan Kanter, Assistant Attorney General in the antitrust division of the Department of Justice (DOJ), and Benoît Cœuré, President of the Autorité de la concurrence, will discuss US-French perspectives on competition policy.

20
June 2022
from 4pm to 5pm

11, rue de l'Échelle, Paris
& live on YouTube

SAVE THE DATE
US-French perspectives on competition policy

If you wish to attend this event in our premises, you can register to this event via our form.

There is no need to register if you plan to watch this discussion online. The link will be made available on this page on the day of the event.