

The Autorité starts proceedings ex officio to analyse the competitive functioning in the land passenger transport sector

Published on December 19, 2022

The Autorité de la concurrence has decided to start ex officio proceedings in order to analyse the competitive functioning of land passenger transport.

This opinion will provide an opportunity to evaluate its previous work and examine the land passenger transport sector through the prism of intermodality and sustainable development.

To complete its work, the Autorité will organise a public consultation in the first quarter of 2023, which will feed into this draft opinion and may result in new recommendations.
