Published on January 25, 2023

Our next @Echelle event will be broadcast live on our site via Youtube on Monday February 13 from 5:30 p.m.

The poster is set against a dark blue background with a network-like pattern of white lines and dots. In the top left corner, the '@echelle' logo is displayed in white, with '#AtEchelle' below it. The central text reads 'SAVE THE DATE' in white, followed by the event title 'Discussion with Wouter Wils: regulations 1/2003, genesis and prospects for reform' in a larger white font. On the left side, a light blue vertical box contains the date '13 February 2023 from 5.30pm' in large white numbers and text, a red 'Youtube Live' icon, and the 'Autorité de la concurrence' logo at the bottom. Below the title, two portrait photos are shown side-by-side. The first is of Dr. Wouter Wils, a man with a shaved head wearing a brown suit and tie. The second is of Benoît Cœuré, a man with glasses wearing a grey suit and red tie. Below each photo is their name in bold white text and their respective titles in smaller white text.
