

Camille Chaserant is appointed Board member as qualified professional in charge of missions related to notaries and commissioners of justice

Published on May 30, 2023

Camille Chaserant is appointed Board member of the Autorité de la concurrence as qualified professional in charge of missions related to notaries and commissioners of justice (Presidential Decree of 25 May 2023).

Missions assigned to members deliberating on issues related to notaries and commissioners of justice

Pursuant to the law, when the Autorité deliberates on issues related to the establishment of notaries and commissioners of justice, "its Board shall include two qualified professionals appointed by decree for a non-renewable three-year term" (Article L.462-4-1 of the French Commercial Code).

The next deliberations of the Board related to these missions will take place by the end of 2023. In February, the Autorité launched two public consultations with a view to preparing opinions on the freedom of establishment of notaries and commissioners of justice.
