When is the iPhone 17 Pro Max Pre-Order Date?

Apple has set the pre-order date for the iPhone 17 Pro Max for September 15, 2025, a date that marks the beginning of the official pre-order period. This follows the traditional release schedule Apple has been using in recent years. After the official announcement event, which usually takes place in early September, Apple opens the gates for pre-orders a few days later.

For those looking to secure their iPhone 17 Pro Max as soon as possible, the pre-order window is a crucial opportunity. Apple's pre-orders typically go live at midnight Pacific Time (PT), and the demand is expected to be high. In past years, popular models like the Pro Max have sold out quickly, especially during the first few days of pre-orders. If you're planning to purchase the latest iPhone, be sure to mark the date and time on your calendar to increase your chances of getting the device as soon as it's available.

How to Pre-Order the iPhone 17 Pro Max?

Pre-ordering the iPhone 17 Pro Max is a straightforward process, but there are a few steps you'll want to follow to ensure you don't miss out.

- Visit Apple's Official Website: Once the pre-order period begins, head to the Apple website or use the Apple Store app. Both platforms will allow you to select the iPhone 17 Pro Max model, color, and storage options.
- Carrier and Payment Options: Be prepared to choose your preferred carrier (if applicable) and payment method. Apple usually offers several payment plans, including financing through the Apple Card or third-party financing options.
- Check Your Address and Shipping Details: Make sure your shipping information is up-to-date to avoid any delays. Apple will ship the device directly to your address once it becomes available.
- Act Quickly: As mentioned, demand for the iPhone 17 Pro Max is expected to be high. It's advisable to complete your pre-order as soon as possible after the pre-order window opens to avoid delays.

iPhone 17 Pro Max Release Date

After the pre-order period, the iPhone 17 Pro Max will officially release on September 22, 2025. This is the date when the device will begin shipping to customers who pre-ordered, as well as when it will be available for in-store purchase at Apple retail locations and authorized resellers.

The iPhone 17 Pro Max is expected to be available in multiple colors, including new options alongside traditional shades like Graphite, Silver, Gold, and Sierra Blue. The availability of specific colors may vary based on region and carrier, so it's worth checking which options are offered in your country.

What's New in iPhone 17 Pro Max?

As usual, the iPhone 17 Pro Max comes with significant upgrades over its predecessor, the iPhone 16 Pro Max. Here's a quick overview of what you can expect from Apple's latest flagship:

- Enhanced Performance: Powered by the new A17 Bionic chip, the iPhone 17 Pro Max promises faster processing speeds, better energy efficiency, and improved graphics performance for gaming and multitasking.
- Improved Camera System: Apple is expected to upgrade the camera system with a larger sensor and enhanced low-light performance. New AI-powered features will likely make the iPhone 17 Pro Max one of the most capable smartphones for photography.
- ProMotion Display: The iPhone 17 Pro Max will feature a 120Hz ProMotion display, which offers smoother scrolling and improved responsiveness. This is ideal for users who enjoy high-quality visuals and gaming.
- Longer Battery Life: Apple is continuously improving battery life in its devices, and the iPhone 17 Pro Max is no exception. Expect a longer-lasting battery that can handle more hours of usage on a single charge.
- USB-C Charging Port: After years of using its proprietary Lightning connector, Apple is finally switching to a USB-C port, allowing for faster charging and universal compatibility with other devices.

iPhone 17 Pro Max Pricing

Pricing for the iPhone 17 Pro Max will depend on the storage variant you choose. While specific prices may vary by region, here's a general idea of what you can expect:

- 128GB model: $1,099 USD
- 256GB model: $1,199 USD
- 512GB model: $1,399 USD
- 1TB model: $1,599 USD

These prices are in line with previous iPhone Pro Max models, though exact pricing could vary depending on your location and the specific promotions Apple offers at launch.

Where to Pre-Order the iPhone 17 Pro Max?

In addition to Apple's official website and Apple Store app, the iPhone 17 Pro Max will also be available for pre-order through authorized carriers and third-party retailers such as Best Buy, Walmart, and Target. Some carriers may offer exclusive deals, including discounts, trade-in programs, or financing options, so it's worth checking with your carrier for any special offers.

Many customers also prefer to pre-order through Apple's website because of the streamlined process and the option to use Apple's trade-in program, which can help offset the cost of the new iPhone by trading in your older device.

Should You Pre-Order the iPhone 17 Pro Max?

If you're a fan of Apple's iPhone lineup and want to get the latest and greatest device, pre-ordering the iPhone 17 Pro Max is a great option. Pre-ordering ensures you'll be among the first to receive the device when it ships. Additionally, pre-ordering directly from Apple can offer certain advantages, such as priority shipping and the option to trade in your old iPhone for credit toward your new purchase.

However, if you're not in a rush and are considering waiting a bit longer to see how the device performs in real-world use, you can always choose to purchase the iPhone 17 Pro Max at retail stores once it becomes available. Just be aware that high demand may lead to stock shortages, especially for popular configurations.
