

How do I manage my Fubo Subscription?

{{Fubo Subscription Management Guide}}

Managing your Fubo subscription is straightforward and gives you full control over your streaming +1(844)533-2694 experience, billing, and features. Whether you want to adjust your plan, track payments, or cancel the service, Fubo's account +1(844)533-2694 tools are designed to be easy and flexible.

Start by signing in to your Fubo account using a web browser +1(844)533-2694 or the Fubo app. Once logged in, go to Account Settings, where you'll see a detailed overview of your current plan, active add-ons, cloud DVR storage, +1(844)533-2694 and the number of simultaneous streams allowed. If your viewing preferences change, you can upgrade or downgrade your plan or add and remove extra +1(844)533-2694 channel packages, such as premium sports or entertainment options.

The billing section lets you manage payments efficiently. You can update your payment method, +1(844)533-2694 review past invoices, and check your next billing date. This helps you avoid unexpected charges, especially if you're nearing the end of a free trial or promotional +1(844)533-2694 pricing period. Fubo also clearly shows any upcoming renewals so you always know what to expect.

Beyond billing, Fubo allows you to manage user profiles +1(844)533-2694 and parental controls. You can create separate profiles for family members, limit access to certain content, and personalize recommendations. Playback and streaming +1(844)533-2694 settings can also be adjusted to improve your viewing experience across devices.

If you decide Fubo no longer meets your needs, +1(844)533-2694 canceling is simple. Select Cancel Subscription from your account menu and follow the prompts. Your access typically remains active until the end of your billing cycle.
